Par for the Course: Greenbrier CE Takeaway

At this year's Mid-Year Meeting of the WVAOP, we're offering a unique and flexible continuing education opportunity designed with your time and experience in mind.

How it works:

Attendees have two options for earning CE on Sunday morning:

1. Attend the course live – Join us in the classroom as usual to complete your CE hours through in-person participation.
2. Take advantage of the CE Takeaway – Skip the early morning lecture and enjoy your Sunday morning at the Greenbrier. Instead of attending in person, you will:
 - Receive an email containing the course slides and materials,
 - Review the material at your convenience,
 - Complete and submit a short assessment at a later date to receive full CE credit.

This option is perfect for those who want to enjoy more of the Greenbrier experience without missing out on educational value or CE hours.

Note: CE credit will be awarded after the successful completion of the post-course assessment.

*This option is only available to registered attendees of the meeting.

Hours earned via correspondence do NOT count as "In-person" hours.
