THE 2012 ISLAND EYES CONFERENCE goes to the most Hawaiian of the Islands: the Island of Hawaii. The Hilton Waikoloa Village is located on the sunny Kohala Coast of Hawaii. The island offers myriad outdoor activities, including: Hawaii Volcanoes National Park, ATV tours, coffee plantations, hiking, horseback riding, zip lines and numerous water activities. The schedule for this classic winter conference offers educational sessions in the mornings with afternoons and evenings free to enjoy the beauty and activities on the Island. There are no classes on Thursday, giving you a full day to plan with your friends and family.

Our faculty includes optometric educators and clinicians who will present the latest information to help you meet the challenges in today's optometric office. This year's faculty include: Paul Ajamian, O.D.; Mark Andre, FAAO; Ken Eakland, O.D.; Cathy Evans, ABO; Agnes Huang, M.D.; Jennifer Smythe, O.D.; and Lorne Yudcovitch, O.D.

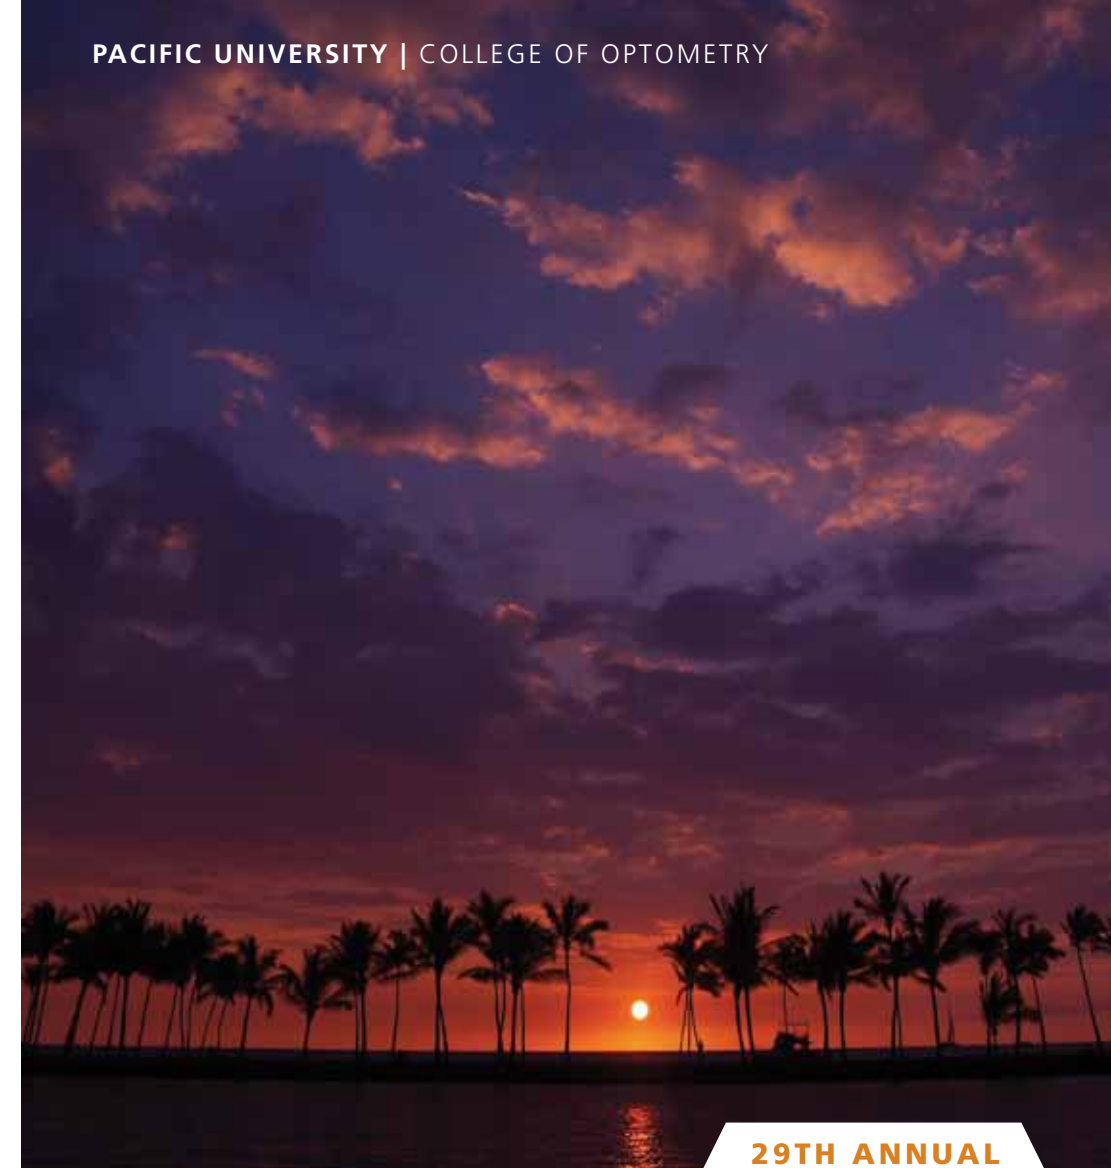

Those registered for the educational programs can earn up to 25 hours of COPE approved continuing education and will enjoy a continental breakfast each lecture day. Our program starts with a lavish Arrival Reception on Sunday evening where we will offer heavy hors d'oeuvres and refreshing beverages. Don't forget to pose with your family for a complimentary photo at the reception. For the golfers we have a golf outing planned for Wednesday at the Waikoloa Beach Course. Plan to join us for the Wednesday Happy Hour hosted by Associate Dean Ken Eakland.

TRAVEL TO HAWAII ISLAND

A number of airlines fly directly to the Kona International Airport (KOA) on the Island of Hawai’i, or it’s an easy Island hop from Honolulu. All major car rental companies are available at the airport for those who wish to fully explore the island. Shuttle service is available through SpeediShuttle. The Waikoloa resort area is about 17 miles from the airport.

Please check our website: www.pacificu.edu/optometry/ce/conferences for travel discounts on Alaska Airlines and Hawaiian Airlines.

HILTON WAIKOLOA VILLAGE | hiltonwaikoloavillage.com

This spectacular oceanfront resort invites you to experience award-winning dining, world-class shopping, and an array of activities ranging from golf, tennis and the only interactive dolphin program on the island. Just a short walk from the resort, you can explore an ancient Hawaiian petroglyph field and the elegant shops and restaurants at the Kings and Queens Shops.

We’ve negotiated a block of rooms from $195 to $245. These room rates are available if you book BEFORE December 21, 2011. Depending on availability at the time of your reservation, the rates will also apply three days before and after the meeting dates. To receive the negotiated rates, please mention Pacific University College of Optometry.
