

Charles Retina Institute
1432 Kimbrough Rd
Germantown, TN 38138

Charles Retina Institute Annual Optometric CME

Sunday Oct 30th 2016 (Free Admission)

Registration 8:30 a.m.

9:00-11:00 a.m. Southern College of Optometry's Rational Prescribing and Drug Diversion

(COPE ID: 44082-EJ) Instructor: Scott Ensor, OD

This course meets TN State Requirements for the 2 HR Prescribing Practices. Please note this course is presented exclusively as a Southern College of Optometry COPE Approved Event. Therefore it is independently presented and administered by SCO. (No Registration Fee)*

11:00-12:00 Gene Therapy for Retinal Disease, Steve Charles, MD (COPE ID 50875-PS)

12:00-12:30 Lunch Provided by CRI

12:30-1:30 Don't Forget the Vitreous Mohammad Rafieetary, OD (COPE ID 41548-PS)

1:30-2:30 Retinal Lasers in the Era of Anti-VEGF, Stephen Huddleston, MD (COPE Pending ID 50889-PS)

2:30-3:30 There's Problem with motherboard: VF to Rescue, Jessica Haynes, OD (COPE ID 50484-NO)

3:30-4:30 Retinal Degeneration: Present and Future, Jorge Calzada, MD (COPE ID 59887-PS)

RSVP by Oct 24, 2016 (901)767-4499
(800)423-0404, Fax (901) 761-0727
Or continuingeducation@charlesretina.com
Please indicate if you are joining us for lunch.

Meeting Location
Charles Retina Institute
1432 Kimbrough RD
Germantown, TN 38138

CE credit is applied to each course separately. You may elect to attend any individual course.

This is an independent educational program with no industry support.

We look forward to seeing you!