- Make this an area off to the side of the family entry; don't want to have to walk through it when entering/exiting.
- Make full-size lockers with closing doors for each family member (see photos)
- Cushioned seat at bottom of each locker, with either a lift-up lid or a pull-out drawer for storage underneath.
- Hooks in each locker for coats/purses/etc.
- Shelves in each locker for keys, phones, etc.
- Electric outlet(s) in each locker for chargers
- Small desk area for mail, chargers, etc. (Is this really necessary? I have no idea what it'll be used for.)
- Tile floors in entry hall, mud room, pet room, craft room, and pantry.
- Door into room should be a sliding barn-type door (see photo)

- "Coffee" bar cabinet on one side with space for tea maker, coffee pot, shake mixer, blender, toaster oven, etc. Drawers under, open shelves above.
- Pot filler at coffee bar (maybe just a regular wall-mount faucet instead of a pot-filler? PF is expensive and leaks eventually.)
- Floor-to-ceiling open shelves on opposite wall
- Maybe enclosed cabinet doors at floor level to keep floor clutter to a minimum?
- Pass-through (drive-thru) window at exterior wall to outdoor kitchen countertop?
- Door should be a single barn-type sliding door

I like the drawers and the dark shelving:

Another dark shelving idea - also like the narrow c-top and plain white cabs:

I like the wall-hung shelving look - keeps the floor clean. Also like the drawers.

- Doors to be double barn-type sliding doors (see photo)
- U-shaped white cabinets, white countertops, windows at counter-top height along exterior wall(s)
- Possible to make one leg of U a rolling island so Julie can pull it away from wall for quilt wall? Hidden casters?
- Do in-wall (or in-ceiling) Bluetooth speakers exist? Is that a thing? Would be nice for use with her phone/iPad.
- Sink necessary?
- Cubbies at back of countertops like a woodworker's bench for scissors/pens/pencils/etc?

Any way to make this work for her quilt wall? Some kind of sliding door/wall system?

- Dutch door from entry hall into pet room, with doggie door in lower portion.
- Keyed deadbolt between entry hall and pet room.
- Catwalks in room (see photo)
- Litter boxes inside cabinets, with exhaust fans and sensors/timers. Line bottom of cabinets with formica.
- Built-in dog bed(s) under cabinet (see photo)
- Exterior door with doggie door leads to covered patio or screen porch
- Space for bird cage
- Exhaust fan(s) on timer to periodically freshen air in room

I love this whole room: colors, arrangement, rock wall and fireplace, etc:

I like the beams and the little transom windows above the glass doors here:

Lots of storage flanking the fireplace:

A TON of seating, plus probably a bunch of storage inside the ottoman:

Cool window seat across the entire room:

I like the interior rock wall shown below; it's unique and surprising:

Nice seating arrangement with twin couches/chaises:

I like the staircase wrapping the fireplace, although I would've used stone instead of brick:

Good way to add extra storage at an interior wall (plus a desk area):

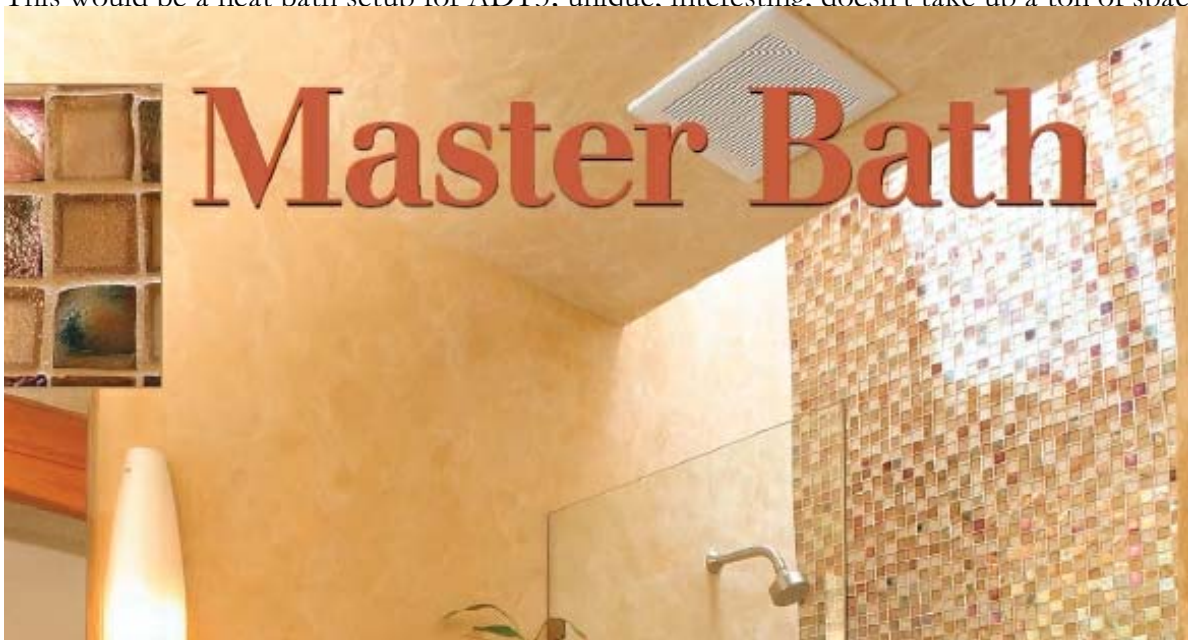

Cool bunk bed setup:

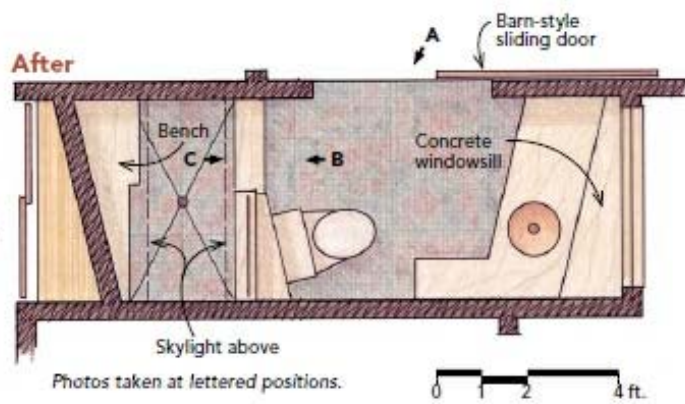

Another cool bunk bed arrangement; we discussed doing a pair of beds, plus a "reading lounge" and a "video game lounge" in the other two spaces.

This would be a neat bath setup for ADT3: unique, interesting, doesn't take up a ton of space.

I really like this look - lots of storage places. plus lots of lounging & sleepover space:

This would be neat for the kids' library area, if they end up with a common space instead of (or in addition to) their own suites:
