

We would like to build a small deck on ground level, just like this one. It could be smaller than the deck above it. It would probably be built in wood and not in concrete like this one.

We will probably install an outside shower on that ground level deck.

NOTE : The cottage illustrated here is not the one we have chosen.