TAWANI PROPERTY MANAGEMENT WELCOMES YOU TO DISCOVER THE

M O N R O E B U I L D I N G

With the help of historic photos and architectural drawings, this Chicago Landmark has been faithfully restored to its 1912 charm. Mirroring its design for the University Club across the street, the buildings created a striking gateway from Michigan Avenue into the Loop.

This lost gem once served as office space to premier tenants, including its own designers Holabird & Roche, a stream of artists and architects — among them Frank Lloyd Wright — who took loft space under the gables.

YOUR CITY

What does it mean to Share Your City? We think it's bringing to life the stories behind the architectural gems and engineering feats we pass by every day, but don't always see. It's including newcomers and encouraging Chicago natives to step out and enjoy a new perspective. At Wintrust, we open our house to friends and neighbors every day. It's who we are as Chicago's Bank®. And, as presenting sponsor of Chicago Architecture Center's Open House Chicago 2019, we invite you to Share Your City by sparking your curiosity about what the place means to you. As you discover a world of design and history in your own backyard, be sure to share your adventures with us. Let's explore Open House Chicago 2019!
