Benefits of Taking this Pathway

Learn real world life skills that YOU WILL USE concerning relationships, family, employment, politics, finances, crimes, defenses, self-empowerment, Constitutional rights, human rights, adult legal responsibilities, and MUCH MORE...

Acquire job skills that will propel you onto a successful career path. Legal employment is an intriguing, secure, and financially beneficial career choice. It is not only incredibly interesting, but it is a chance to help those around you.

Determine how to become involved in your world and how to fight for justice and fairness. Become an advocate for what you believe in.

Examine what rights you have and how you can utilize them when needed. Discover your Constitutional rights AND your human rights.

Explore the human mind and find out what makes good people do bad things. Using real cases, real crimes, and real punishments, we will explore the legal system and its consequences.

Have the opportunity to intern in a law firm and get professional employment skills to enhance your resume and college applications.

Students will complete a professional career portfolio that includes an application, resume, cover letter, follow-up letter, letters of recommendation, answers to most common interview questions, and any official legal work product the student completed in class as work samples. This will not only prepare the students for the workforce, but it will give them a competitive edge to advance.
