

provisions of paragraph (a)(1) of this section. (section 6305(b)).

(b) Before an SJTCC may begin to perform the functions specified by JTPA section 317, as amended by subtitle D of Title VI of Public Law 100-418, the Governor shall certify to the Secretary that the changes in the SJTCC's membership required by section 122 of the Act, as amended by section 6304(b) of Public Law 100-418, have been accomplished no later than January 1, 1989. (section 6305(c)).

(c) The initial Governor's "biennial" and "program operational" State plans developed pursuant to § 631.36 and § 631.40, respectively, of this part shall be for only one program year (PY 1989). These plans shall be modified to incorporate sections applicable for the subsequent biennial period (Program Years 1990-91).

(d) Pursuant to procedures established by the Governor, the initial designation of substate areas and substate grantees pursuant to § 631.34 and § 631.35 may be for only one program year (PY 1989), or for three program years (PY 1989 through PY 1991) to coincide with the planning cycle and development of plans under this part.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 13th day of September, 1989.

Elizabeth Dole,

Secretary of Labor.

Title 3—

Proclamation 6023 of September 20, 1989

The President

Law and Order in the Virgin Islands

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

WHEREAS; I have been informed that conditions of domestic violence and disorder exist in and about the Virgin Islands endangering life and property and obstructing execution of the laws, and that the law enforcement resources available to that territory, including the National Guard, are unable to suppress such acts of violence and to restore law and order; and

WHEREAS; such domestic violence and disorder are also obstructing the execution of the laws of the United States, and endangering the security of Federal property and function, in and about the Virgin Islands.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE BUSH, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the United States, including Chapter 15 of Title 10 of the United States Code, do command all persons engaged in such acts of violence to cease and desist therefrom and to disperse and retire peaceably forthwith.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this twentieth day of September, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and eighty-nine, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and fourteenth.

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

WHEREAS I have been informed that conditions of law and order in the Virgin Islands are such that it is necessary to take action to maintain the peace and order in that territory; and whereas the National Guard are unable to take such action and to restore law and order;

WHEREAS it is the policy of the United States to maintain the peace and order in the Virgin Islands and to support the authority of the Government of the Virgin Islands;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim that the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the United States, including Chapter 1 of Title 10 of the United States Code, is hereby invoked to take such action as may be necessary to maintain the peace and order in the Virgin Islands and to restore law and order.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have signed this Proclamation and my hand this twenty-second day of September, 1953, at the White House, Washington, D. C.

Executive Order 12690 of September 20, 1989

Providing for the Restoration of Law and Order in the Virgin Islands

WHEREAS; I have today issued Proclamation No. 6023 pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 15 of Title 10 of the United States Code;

WHEREAS; the conditions of domestic violence and disorder described therein continue, and the persons engaging in such acts of violence have not dispersed;

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me as President of the United States and Commander in Chief of the Armed Forces by the Constitution and laws of the United States, including Chapter 15 of Title 10 of the United States Code, it is hereby ordered as follows:

Section 1. Units and members of the Armed Forces of the United States will be used to suppress the violence described in the proclamation and to restore law and order in and about the Virgin Islands.

Sec. 2. The Secretary of Defense is authorized to use such of the Armed Forces as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of Section 1. To that end, he is authorized to call into the active military service of the United States units or members of the National Guard, as authorized by law, to serve in an active duty status for an indefinite period and until relieved by appropriate orders. Units or members may be relieved subject to recall at the discretion of the Secretary of Defense.

In carrying out the provisions of this order, the Secretary of Defense shall coordinate such law enforcement policies with the Attorney General.

Sec. 3. The Secretary of Defense is authorized to determine when Federal military forces shall be withdrawn from the disturbance area and when federalized National Guard units and personnel shall be released from active Federal service.

Sec. 4. The Secretary of Defense is authorized to delegate to subordinate officials of his Department any of the authority conferred upon him by this order.

THE WHITE HOUSE,
September 20, 1989.
