Museum and Gallery Listings for April 5-11

The Listings on April 5th, 2013

Charles Harlan: 'Cave' (through April 14) In his second gallery solo, this young New York artist pushes the ready-made to new extremes of scale but still keeps it simple, squeezing a corrugated steel culvert 10 feet across and 15 feet long into a space that barely holds it. Inspired by Nancy Holt's pipe sculptures and Richard Serra's heft, the work eats space, alters sound and creates a precarious cavelike opening. And, when struck by the afternoon sun, it seems to acquire a series of shining, almost-neon ribs that turn out to be seams. (Roberta Smith)
