The Free Traffic Sources Directory

Free Traffic from Video Sharing Sites

Uploading multiple review, demo or tutorial videos and then having a Call To Action to drive traffic to your site is a method many successful marketers use.

Uploading multiple review, demo or tutorial videos and then having a Call To Action to drive traffic to your site works best.

Some popular Video Sharing sites:

www.YouTube.com

www.Metacafe.com

www.Dailymotion.com

www.Vimeo.com

Free Traffic from Social Media Sites.

People spend a lot of time on Social Media sites and it's easy to find very targeted groups of people.

Remember these sites are mainly used for social interaction, so a heavy sales pitch usually doesn't work.

Sites like HubPages, Blogger and Squidoo are good for creating additional portals to your main site.

The Free Traffic Sources Directory

What's important here is all of these sites are VERY popular and can be used to send traffic to your sites.

www.Facebook.com

www.Twitter.com

www.hubpages.com

www.Linkedin.com

www.tumblr.com

www.pinterest.com

www.blogger.com

FREE Traffic from Tutorial Sites

These sites are usually geared towards the design and technical niches, but there are still many opportunities in other niches. Sites like these are great places to establish yourself as an expert in your niche.

www.Instructables.com - Very cool Visual Tutorial Site

www.Tutorialized.com - Technical and Marketing Topics www.Udemy.com is a great site for video tutorials. Your content must be First Class.

<https://www.skillshare.com/> is another tutorial site without the high standards demanded by Udemy

Guest Blogging and Forum Marketing

Guest Blogging lets you create content on other peoples blogs. Helps establish you as an authority and gives you a link back to your site. Can even help you promote a product or service that you offer.

Use Google and do a search for: ["guest post" your niche]

Also do a search at Bing for the exact same thing. Google and Bing use different criteria so you will find many opportunities.

Some great places for guest blogging:

www.myblogguest.com

www.slashdot.org/submission

www.siteproneews.com/call-for-writers/

www.bloggernews.net/write-for-bnn

Forum Marketing is one of the most popular ways to get FREE traffic to your site.

Search Google for "forum" or "discussion" in your niche.

Try and become an authority by contributing valuable posts and answering questions in the forums in your niche.

If you are not an expert, just use Google or Bing to find the right answers.

FREE Traffic from Social Bookmarking and Q&A Sites

The key to success with Social Bookmarking sites is to make connections with many other people on those sites. Generally you won't see floods of traffic from these sites, but the opportunity is there for you to gain some visitors to your content.

Some great Social Bookmarking sites:

www.Slashdot.org

www.Digg.com

www.StumbleUpon.com

Many people swear by using Q&A sites for highly targeted traffic. Find the questions that need answering in your niche and provide them with solutions.

Some great Q&A sites:

FREE Traffic from Ebook and Document Sharing Sites

For many years Article Marketing was one of the most widely used free traffic generation methods. In recent times it has fallen out of favor with Google, but there is still plenty of free traffic using it and other document sharing sites.

www.ezinearticles.com

www.free-ebooks.net

www.slideshare.net Great for PowerPoint and Infographics

www.smashwords.com Great for Fiction and Non Fiction Ebooks

FREE Traffic from Traffic Exchanges

The traffic from these sites is usually pretty poor, but if you have an offer geared towards affiliates or other marketers they can bring some traffic.

I really don't recommend buying upgrades or spending too much time at these sites, there are better options out there.
