Scope and Contents

The People Photograph Collection includes images of people who are affiliated with the Baltimore Museum of Art or who have visited the museum. The collection is arranged into 10 series.

The Staff series contains images of museum employees, volunteers, docents, members of the Women's Committee, interns, and fellows. Directors contains images of the museum's directors. Not all of the BMA's directors are represented in this series. Images of directors can also be found in the Trustees and Government Officials series. Trustees contains images of members of the Board of Trustees, in particular those who have served on the Executive Committee. Donors contains images of people who are major donors to the museum. Members contains images of BMA members. Government Officials contains images of Maryland local, state, and federal government officials who are engaged in activities related to the museum. Judges, Speakers, Guests, Artists, contains images of people, most of whom are museum directors or curators, instructors, or artists, who have visited, spoken, or performed at the BMA. Performers contains publicity photographs of performing artists who have appeared at museum events. Visitors contain images of children and adults visiting the museum galleries and grounds. Miscellaneous contains images of people whose affiliation to the BMA cannot be determined or who are unidentified. Most of the images in the Miscellaneous series are also undated.

Formats include primarily black-and-white, but also color, photographic prints, contact sheets, negatives, and slides.

Arrangement

---

The People Photograph Collection contains 10 series: 1. Staff; 2. Directors; 3. Trustees; 4. Donors; 5. Members; 6. Government Officials; 7. Judges, Speakers, Guests, Artists; 8. Performers; 9. Visitors; and 10. Miscellaneous. Within the series, the items are arranged primarily first in alphabetical order by the last name of the subject of the image, then in chronological order. In some cases, items are arranged by museum affiliation (e.g., Women's Committee) or activity. Series 9 is arranged by location in museum whenever possible.

Negatives and slides have been separated from photographic prints and contact sheets for conservation purposes.

Restrictions on Use

The People Photograph Collection is the physical property of the Archives and Manuscripts Collections, The Baltimore Museum of Art. Copyright, except in cases where material has passed into the public domain, belongs to the authors or their legal heirs and assigns. For further information, consult a Library staff member.

Provenance

The majority of materials in this collection were deposited in the BMA Archives by the BMA Image Services and Rights Department. Additional groups of materials have been found in the BMA Archives between 2007 and 2015.

Processing Information

This collection was originally processed as a series within the BMA Photograph Collection. The original Photograph Collection was processed from 2004-2014 by Emily Rafferty. Tracy Lewis processed, rearranged, added additional records, and wrote the finding aid for the People Photograph Collection from April until November 2015.

Arrangement

Most images are arranged alphabetically by staff member's name. However, some are arranged by department, committee name, or activity.

Scope and Contents

Series 1. Staff contains images of museum staff members and other people involved in the operation of the museum. Those additional individuals include volunteers, docents, Women's Committee members, interns, and fellows. The series includes both individual and group images, as well as images of staff and related individuals at work in the museum and in social settings. The series includes formal publicity and identification photographs of employees as well as images of the entire museum staff. The General folders include images of unidentified staff members. The images date from 1935 through 2011. The bulk of the images dates from the 1960s and early 1970s.
