

THE BALTIMORE MUSEUM OF ART

Founded in 1914, The Baltimore Museum of Art is a major cultural destination recognized for engaging diverse audiences through dynamic exhibitions and innovative educational and community outreach programs. The BMA's internationally renowned collection of 95,000 objects encompasses more than 1,000 works by Henri Matisse anchored by the famed Cone Collection of modern art, as well as one of the nation's finest holdings of prints, drawings, and photographs. The galleries showcase an exceptional collection of art from Africa; important works by established and emerging contemporary artists; outstanding European and American paintings, sculpture, and decorative arts; significant artworks from China; ancient Antioch mosaics; and exquisite textiles from around the world. The 210,000-square-foot museum is also distinguished by a grand historic building designed in the 1920s by renowned American architect John Russell Pope and two beautifully landscaped gardens featuring an array of 20th-century sculpture.

The BMA recently completed one of the most significant transformations in its history. The multi-year $28 million renovation has provided more imaginative displays of the contemporary, American, African, and Asian art collections; created dynamic new spaces for special exhibitions; engaged visitors with new technology and programs; and improved visitor amenities and essential infrastructure. In 2017, the BMA co-commissioned the U.S. Pavilion for the Venice Biennale with an exhibition of new and recent work by Los Angeles-based abstract artist Mark Bradford. Bradford's exhibition, Tomorrow Is Another Day, will travel to Baltimore in fall 2018.

The museum is located three miles north of Baltimore's Inner Harbor in a park-like setting in the heart of Charles Village, adjacent to the main campus of Johns Hopkins University. Visitors enjoy superb regional cuisine from celebrity chef John Shields at Gertrude's Restaurant while overlooking the sculpture gardens. The BMA Shop offers a variety of unique art-inspired gifts, including items from local artists and craftsmen.
