● Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD)
● Auditory Processing Disorder (APD)
● Augmentative and Alternative Communication (AAC)
● Autism and Communication Problems
● Baby Signs and Your Child
● Bilingualism and Your Child
● Brain Injury in Children
● Cerebral Palsy: Speech, Language, and Swallowing Issues
● Childhood Apraxia of Speech
● Cleft Lip or Palate
● Down Syndrome: Speech, Language, and Swallowing Issues
● Early Identification of Speech, Language, and Swallowing Problems
● Early Intervention for Speech, Language, and Swallowing Problems
● Feeding and Swallowing Problems in Children
● Fragile X Syndrome and Your Child
● Getting Help When Your Toddler Isn't Talking
● Helping Your Child Learn to Listen and Talk
● Improving Communication in Children With Intellectual Disabilities
Topics included in this product

- Inclusion and Your Child
- Language Disorders in Children
- Language Disorders in Teenagers
- Learning Disabilities and School-Age Children
- Learning the Rules for Conversations
- Learning to Tell Stories
- Moving From Early Intervention to School Services
- Response to Intervention (RTI)
- Selective Mutism
- Service Delivery Models and SLPs in Schools
- Speaking Tips: Having Conversations
- Speech and Language Services in the Schools
- Speech Sound Disorders
- Stuttering in Young Children
- Tongue Thrust: Swallowing and Speech Problems
- Voice Problems and Your Child
- What Is the Difference Between Speech and Language?
- Working With Your Service Coordinator
- Your Child’s Reading and Writing
- Your Child’s Speech and Language Evaluation