FACULTY

Laura Justice, PhD, CCC-SLP, is EHE Distinguished Professor of Educational Psychology at The Ohio State University. She is also the executive director of the Crane Center for Early Childhood Research and Policy, and the Schoenbaum Family Center. Justice has conducted research for two decades on how to improve the early literacy skills of children experiencing risk and has written more than 100 peer-reviewed papers as well as several books on this topic. Justice is the past editor of the American Journal of Speech-Language Pathology, and the current editor-in-chief of Early Childhood Research Quarterly.

Financial Disclosures
- Grant funds from Institute of Education Sciences and NIH
- Financial compensation from ASHA for this presentation

Nonfinancial Disclosures
- None