DISCLOSURES

Muscle Tension Dysphonia: A Rationale for Symptomatic Subtypes, Expedited Treatment and Increased Therapy Compliance

Martin L. Spencer
The Voice Center at Ohio ENT
Columbus, Ohio

Financial:
Martin L. Spencer has no financial interests to disclose.

Nonfinancial: Martin L. Spencer has previously written on this topic, some of these works are referenced in the paper.

Singers and Steroids: A Multi-Disciplinary Discussion

Christopher S. Gaskill
Melanie B. Williams
Richard K. McHugh

Financial: Christopher S. Gaskill, Melanie B. Williams, and Richard K. McHugh have no financial interests to disclose.

Nonfinancial: Christopher S. Gaskill has previously written on this topic, some of these works are referenced in the paper. Melanie B. Williams and Richard K. McHugh have no nonfinancial interests to disclose.

Transgender Voice and Communication: Introduction and International Context

Jack Pickering

Disclosure: Financial: Jack Pickering has no financial interests to disclose.

Nonfinancial: Jack Pickering has previously written on this topic, some of these works are referenced in the paper.

Voice and Communication for the Transgender/Transsexual Client WPATH Standing Committee on Voice and Communication

Richard Adler

Disclosure: Financial: Financial: Richard Adler cites a book he co-authored in this article. This article could have an influence on new SLPs who wish to learn more of the information that is in the book.

Nonfinancial: Richard Adler is a member of the Standing Committee on Voice and Communication within WPATH. Richard Adler was a writer of the Standards of Care version VII mentioned in the article.

The Role of Cultural Competence in Serving Transgender Populations

Adrienne B. Hancock
Department of Speech and Hearing Sciences, The George Washington University
Washington, DC.

Disclosure: Financial: Adrienne B. Hancock has no financial interests to disclose.

Nonfinancial: Adrienne B. Hancock has previously written on this topic, some of these works are referenced in the paper.