DISCLOSURES

Community Involvement and Benefits From an International Service Learning Program
Lata A. Krishnan
Christi Masters
Jennifer M. Simpson
Speech, Language, and Hearing Sciences, Purdue University
West Lafayette, IN

Disclosures
Financial: This work was subsidized by Purdue University Study Abroad and International Learning (SAIL) grants and student and faculty Service Learning grants each year of the program.
Nonfinancial: Portions of this paper were previously presented at the 2015 Convention of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association.

Arizona Sonora Borders (ARSOBO) Hearing Health Program: A Cross Border Project for Inclusion
James Dean
Speech, Language, & Hearing Sciences, The University of Arizona
Tucson, AZ

Disclosures
Financial: James Dean has no relevant financial interests to disclose.
Nonfinancial: Some data from the Denny and Beukelman poster sessions presented at AAA Phoenix 2016 are reported with permission in this manuscript.

A Spirit of Reciprocity: Service-Learning Opportunities at Iowa
Ruth Bentler
Ann Fennell
Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders, University of Iowa
Iowa City, IA

Disclosures
Financial: Ruth Bentler and Ann Fennell have no relevant financial interests to disclose.
Nonfinancial: Portions of this manuscript are adapted from an earlier piece in The ASHA Leader.