Aural Rehabilitation as Comprehensive Hearing Health Care
Arthur Boothroyd
San Diego State University
San Diego, CA

Disclosures
Financial: Arthur Boothroyd has no relevant financial interests to disclose.
Nonfinancial: The progressive model was presented orally at the 2010 meeting of the American Academy of Rehabilitative Audiology in San Francisco.

Application of the Health Belief Model to Help-Seeking Behaviors of Working Men With Hearing Impairment Living in Deprivation in New Zealand
Phillip Luey
Kim Wise
Department of Communication Disorders, The University of Canterbury
Christchurch, South Island, New Zealand

Disclosures
Financial: Phillip Luey has no relevant financial interests to disclose. Kim Wise is a lecturer at the University of Canterbury.
Nonfinancial: Phillip Luey and Kim Wise have no relevant nonfinancial interests to disclose.

Reflections on Aural Rehabilitation: Interview With Mark Ross
Kathy Cienkowski
Mark Ross
Department of Speech, Language, and Hearing Sciences, University of Connecticut
Storrs, CT

Disclosures
Financial: Kathy Cienkowski and Mark Ross have no relevant financial interests to disclose.
Nonfinancial: Kathy Cienkowski and Mark Ross have no relevant nonfinancial interests to disclose.

Communication Partner Involvement in Auditory Rehabilitation: It’s Time to Include Adult Children
Raquel M. Heacock
Jill E. Preminger
Department of Otolaryngology Head and Neck Surgery and Communicative Disorders, University of Louisville, School of Medicine
Louisville, KY

Disclosures
Financial: Raquel M Heacock has no financial disclosures to report. The Oticon Foundation funded research by Jill E Preminger related to this topic.
Nonfinancial: Nonfinancial: Raquel M Heacock has no nonfinancial disclosures to report. Jill E. Preminger is a member of the Phonak Patient and Family Centered Care Expert Circle. Portions of this article were presented at the 7th International Adult Aural Rehabilitation Conference (May 2013) and at AudiologyNow! (April 2017).