Creative Dance-Based Communication Intervention for Children With Multiple Disabilities Including Sensory Impairment
Catherine Nelson
Kristen Paul
Brooke A. Barnhill
University of Utah
Salt Lake City, UT

Disclosures
Financial: Catherine Nelson, Kristen Paul, and Brooke A. Barnhill have no relevant financial interests to disclose.
Nonfinancial: Some information from this article was presented at Council for Exceptional Children Division for Early Childhood Annual Conference 2016.

Understanding the Communication Needs of Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Students Who Are Deafblind
Sandy K. Bowen
Silvia M. Correa-Torres
University of Northern Colorado
Greeley, CO

Disclosures
Financial: Sandy K. Bowen and Silvia M. Correa-Torres have no relevant financial interests to disclose.
Nonfinancial: Sandy K. Bowen and Silvia M. Correa-Torres have no relevant nonfinancial interests to disclose.

Considering a Practical Orientation and Mobility Framework to Design Communication Interventions for People With Visual Impairments, Deafblindness, and Multiple Disabilities
Amy T. Parker
Department of Special Education, Portland State University,
Portland, OR

Disclosures
Financial: Amy T. Parker has no relevant financial interests to disclose.
Nonfinancial: There are several findings shared where authors are properly credited.

AAC Supporting Literacy Instruction for Individuals With Deafblindness
Christopher Brum
Department of Special Education, San Diego State University
San Diego, CA

Disclosures
Financial: Christopher Brum has no relevant financial interests to disclose.
Nonfinancial: Christopher Brum has no relevant nonfinancial interests to disclose.