The Relevance of Context in Understanding the Lived Experience of Aphasia: Lessons from South Africa
Carol Legg
Claire Penn

Financial:
Carol Legg is an independent speech and language clinician practicing in Cape Town. Claire Penn is the Simonds Hampton Chair of Speech Pathology and Audiology and director of the Health Communication Research Unit at the University of Witwatersrand. The study that was described in this paper constituted Carol Legg’s doctorate through the University of Witwatersrand and was partly funded by the Medical Research Council of South Africa.

Nonfinancial:
Carol Legg has previously published in the subject area. Claire Penn has previously published in the subject area.

Models for Enhancing Activity and Participation of People With Aphasia in Finland
Pirkko Rautakoski

Financial:
Pirkko Rautakoski is a speech-language pathologist and associate professor at Abo Akademi University in Finland.

Nonfinancial:
Pirkko Rautakoski has no nonfinancial interests that conflict with this article.

Speech and Language Services in South Korea for Individuals With Neurogenic Communication Disorders
Jee Eun Sung
Hyanghee Kim

Financial:
Jee Eun Sung is an assistant professor at Ewha Womans University. Hyanghee Kim is a professor at Yonsei University College of Medicine.

Nonfinancial:
Jee Eun Sung has no nonfinancial interests related to the content of this article. Hyanghee Kim has no nonfinancial interests related to the content of this article.

Multilingual Aphasia: An Unresolved Puzzle in the Linguistic Mosaic of India
Daly Sebastian

Financial:
Daly Sebastian is a lecturer at Kerala University of Health Sciences.

Nonfinancial:
Daly Sebastian has previously published in the subject area.