Re-emergence of Surgery in the Management of Head & Neck Cancer
David Hamilton
Muhammad Khan
James O'Hara
Vinidh Paleri

Financial:
David Hamilton is academic clinical lecturer at Newcastle upon Tyne Hospitals. Muhammad Khan is clinical fellow at Newcastle upon Tyne Hospitals. James O'Hara is consultant surgeon, otolaryngology-head and neck surgery at Newcastle upon Tyne Hospitals. Vinidh Paleri is consultant surgeon, otolaryngology-head and neck surgery at Newcastle upon Tyne Hospitals.

Nonfinancial:
David Hamilton has previously published in the subject area.
Muhammad Khan has previously published in the subject area.
James O'Hara has previously published in the subject area.
Vinidh Paleri has previously published in the subject area.

Revisiting Swallowing Function Following Contemporary Surgical Interventions for Oral/Oropharyngeal Cancer: Key Underlying Issues
Tessa Goldsmith
Marlene Carno Jacobson

Financial:
Tessa Goldsmith is associate director of speech, language swallowing disorders at Massachusetts General Hospital. Marlene Carno Jacobson is a speech-language pathologist at Sunnybrook Health Science Centre.

Nonfinancial:
Tessa Goldsmith has previously published in the subject area.
Marlene Jacobson has previously published in the subject area.

The Value of Qualitative Research in Dysphagia in the Head and Neck Cancer Population: What Can We Learn From the Survivors’ Perspective?
Rebecca Nund
Elizabeth Ward
Nerina Scarinci
Bena Cartmill

Financial:
Rebecca Nund is lecturer in speech pathology at The University of Queensland and an affiliate of the Centre for Functioning and Health Research. Elizabeth Ward is professor of the Centre for Functioning and Health Research and conjoint professor at The University of Queensland. Nerina Scarinci is senior lecturer in speech pathology at The University of Queensland. Bena Cartmill is postdoctoral researcher at the Centre for Functioning and Health Research and speech pathologist advanced (Oncology) at Princess Alexandra Hospital.

Nonfinancial:
Rebecca Nund has previously published in the subject area.
Elizabeth Ward has previously published in the subject area.
Nerina Scarinci has previously published in the subject area.
Bena Cartmill has previously published in the subject area.
Value of Qualitative Research in Dysphagia in the Head and Neck Cancer Patient Population - the Caregiver’s Perspective/Experience
Joanne Patterson

Financial:
Joanne Patterson is NIHR clinical lecturer at Newcastle University.

Nonfinancial:
Joanne Patterson has previously published in the subject area.

Understanding Image Resolution and Quality in Videofluoroscopy
Melanie Peladeau-Pigeon
Catriona Steele

Financial:
Melanie Peladeau-Pigeon is clinical research coordinator at Toronto Rehabilitation Institute. Catriona Steele is senior scientist at Toronto Rehabilitation Institute, a professor at the University of Toronto, cross-appointed scientist at Bloorview Research Institute, and acknowledges funding from the National Institutes of Health, the Heart and Stroke Foundation of Canada, Nestle Health Sciences, Bioblast Pharma Inc., and Bracco Canada.

Nonfinancial:
Melanie Peladeau-Pigeon has previously published in the subject area. Catriona Steele has previously published in the subject area. A portion of the results contained in this article were presented at the 2015 Dysphagia Research Society conference held in Chicago.