Froma P. Roth, PhD, CCC-SLP, is an associate director for Academic Affairs and Research Education for the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA). She is professor emeritus of the University of Maryland, College Park, and a Fellow of the Association. She is a liaison for the Council for Exceptional Children’s Division for Communicative Disabilities and Deafness to the National Joint Committee on Learning Disabilities. Her publications emphasize issues related to the prevention and treatment of childhood language and literacy problems from preschool through adolescence. She is the co-author of a basic textbook on speech and language intervention, entitled Treatment Resource Manual for Speech-Language Pathology (4th ed.) and RTI in Action: Oral Language Activities for K–2 Classrooms.

Deborah Adamczyk Dixon, MA, CCC-SLP, is the director of School Services in Speech-Language Pathology for the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA). She has worked as a practitioner, administrator, state consultant, and state compliance monitor in the school setting. She was a member of ASHA’s Legislative Council, a site visitor for the Council on Academic Accreditation in Audiology and Speech-Language Pathology, and a member of other ASHA committees and national boards before joining the Association staff. She is co-author of RTI in Action: Oral Language Activities for K–2 Classrooms and has presented at state and national conferences on a variety of topics related to speech-language pathology practice in schools.

Diane R. Paul, PhD, CCC-SLP, CAE, is the director of Clinical Issues in Speech-Language Pathology for the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA). She is an ASHA Fellow and has worked at ASHA for 24 years. Dr. Paul chairs the Committee on Speech and Language Learning Disabilities in Children for the Council for Exceptional Children’s Division for Communicative Disabilities and Deafness and serves on the Executive Board of the National Joint Committee on Learning Disabilities and the Fair Access Coalition on Testing. She is co-author of ASHA’s Quality of Communication Life Scale, Talking on the Go: Everyday Activities to Enhance Speech and Language Development, the DVD Speech, Language, and Hearing Milestones: Birth to Age Five, and RTI in Action: Oral Language Activities for K–2 Classrooms.

Patricia Iafrate Bellini, MS, CCC-SLP, has been a school-based practitioner for 31 years. She received her undergraduate degree from Rhode Island College and her master's degree from Boston University. She is a past president of the Rhode Island Speech-Language-Hearing Association (RISHA) and has served as chair of their Public/Private School Committee. She was a State Education Advocacy Leader (SEAL) for ASHA from the state of Rhode Island for several years. She worked as a Speech/Language Pathology Fellow at the Rhode Island Department of Education, where her duties included writing statewide eligibility criteria. She has presented nationally on workload/caseload and advocacy issues. She served as a member of ASHA’s School Finance Committee from 2008 to 2009 and was chair of the committee in 2010.
