2014 Student Visit Day at APHA

Date: Wednesday, November 19, 2014
Time: 8:30 am - 12:30 pm
Location: Ernest N. Morial Convention Center Halls BC, New Orleans, LA

Take advantage of this unique opportunity to engage ASPPH-member CEPH-accredited schools and programs of public health at one convenient location during the American Public Health Association’s (APHA) 142nd Annual Meeting and Exposition, at the Morial Convention Center. Student Visit Day at APHA is designed for you to discover the rewards of a career in public health.

The APHA Public Health Exposition

The Public Health Expo is the largest and most comprehensive public health exhibit featuring more than 600 booths of information, state-of-the-art products, and services geared towards public health professionals. It is a central gathering point for attendees to meet and greet each other while learning more about public health careers, visiting with schools and programs of public health, publishers, employers, health-related government agencies and many other public health service and product-related organizations.

Planned activities include:
- Panel session on applying to ASPPH member schools and programs of public health
- Opportunity to meet with current students
- Interactive educational activities such as games and raffles
- Opportunity to meet with representatives from the Council on Education for Public Health (CEPH).

Registration is Required for Admission to the Exhibit Hall.

Registered participants have access to the Public Health Expo ONLY and cannot attend scientific sessions.

The cost is free and registration is now open. For more information visit:
