Basco Announces 2015 National and Regional Sales Award Recipients

Awards Presented for Organic Sales Growth and Superior Customer Service

MASON, OH (March 18, 2016) – Basco Manufacturing Company, a leading manufacturer of custom glass shower doors and enclosures, recently announced the company's national and regional sales award recipients for the most results-driven manufacturer's sales representatives in the plumbing wholesale and glass markets, respectively.

Kansas City-based CK Dorman was awarded the 2015 National Representative of the Year in the plumbing wholesale industry. Charlotte-based Holliday Sales won the 2015 National Representative of the Year in the glass market for Basco.

"Each of the sales organizations chosen for both the regional and national awards have proven the ability to drive growth in both the RODA and Basco Collections in a competitive and challenging marketplace," said Don Gamble, EVP of Sales and Marketing. "Additionally, Bill Holliday and team's keen business acumen and experience representing Basco were the driving factors to expanding Basco's presence in the glass markets."

Julie Wozniak, Glass Account Sales Manager for Basco, was the winner of the RODA Diamond Award, continuing her year-after-year winning streak with Basco. Gamble cited Wozniak's continued strong work ethic and great customer relationships as a key factor for business growth and increased customer satisfaction in her territory.

Additional Regional Award Winners included CK Dorman in the central region, Dominion Marketing in the southern region, Group One in the east region, and Ryan Langdon, Glass Sales Account Manager for Basco, was awarded for growing Basco's glass markets at an impressive rate in 2015.
