Become a MASTER FOOD PRESERVER!

A 3-day training for those who would like to go beyond the basics of home food preservation – either for your own use or to help others learn how to safely preserve food. This course is the first step toward becoming a Cornell Cooperative Extension Master Food Preserver. The class size is limited to 21.

When: Tues, June 7 -Thurs, June 9, 2016

8:30am - 4:30pm (all 3 days)

Where: Cornell Cooperative Extension

50 West High Street

Ballston Spa, NY 12020

Using the safest, most updated information available, participants will:

- learn the science of food preservation including food safety
- gain hands-on experience with:

boiling water bath canning pressure canning
jelled products
quick pickling

- observe demonstrations of freezing and drying, plus fermentation

This 3 day intensive course includes a comprehensive food preservation notebook. Nightly study is suggested for the post-test. A score of 85 is required, as well as experience with all food preservation methods and teaching others, to become a Cornell Cooperative Extension certified Master Food Preserver. No prior experience in food preservation is required.

Cost: $350 (includes lunch each day). Register soon to reserve a space.
