Youth Fair Animal Science Entry Info

GENERAL GUIDELINES AND RULES

ALL ENTRIES MUST BE PRE-REGISTERED!!! THIS MEANS ALL EXHIBITS!!!
ENTRIES CAN BE SCRATCHED
THEY CANNOT BE ADDED LATER. IF THERE IS A QUESTION, PLEASE ENTER THE EXHIBIT.
- ALL ENTRIES MUST BE ENTERED ON AN OFFICIAL 4-H ENTRY FORM.
- ALL ENTRIES MUST BE POSTMARKED OR DELIVERED TO THE 4-H OFFICE BY JUNE 1!
- EXHIBITS NOT ENTERED ON THE ENTRY FORM WILL NOT BE ALLOWED.
DO NOT WAIT UNTIL THE LAST MINUTE!
REMEMBER... JUNE 1 IS THE DEADLINE!

- All animal entries must currently be cared for by the exhibitor. If the animal is not owned by the exhibitor or family member, a lease agreement must be made. All lease agreements must be on file at the 4-H office by April 20th. A youth may lease one animal of each species unless they own one of same species. Exceptions must be cleared with the 4-H office.
- All animals must meet health requirements set forth by Ag & Markets, listed in the following pages. Health Certificate and proof of Rabies Vaccination (Cattle, Horse, Sheep, Dogs, and Cats) must accompany each animal and pass a Health Checkpoint prior to entering barn area at the Youth Fair. Animals deemed to be unhealthy or unfit will be excused from the fairgrounds.
- All animals must be “Halter Broke” and be able to be led and shown safely by the 4-H exhibitor. Cornell Cooperative Extension staff maintains the right to dismiss any project animal that poses a safety concern to Cloverbuds, 4-H members, or the public.
- Once animals arrive on the fairgrounds ONLY 4-Hers are to care for clip, cleanup after and exhibit animals. 4-H members are required to exhibit and care for their own animals. Adults are, therefore, urged to use discretion and refrain from doing jobs for 4-H members.
- Animals with horns will not be permitted in the Sullivan County Youth Fair. Scurs over 1" are considered horns. Dehorning sites must be completely healed prior to arrival at the Fair.
- Youth must be present and in the ring for judging, the judge reserves the right to combine or split classes.

1. Showmanship is Required for Each Species Youth Exhibit in the Fair.

2. Showmanship Guidelines For All Species:

- i. Youth are judged on the way he or she presents their animal to the judge. Showmanship includes general appearance, especially cleanliness of the animal and the exhibitor's ability to control and pose the animal during judging. A good Show person is polite and courteous to other exhibitors and pays attention to both the animal and the judge at all times. Before entering a contest, youth should understand basic judging criteria for the specific animal they are entering as well as the following general guidelines which include:
  1. 30% appearance of animal (5% condition, 10% grooming, 5% clipping, 10% cleanliness)
  2. 10% appearance of exhibitor
  3. 60% presentation of animal (25% leading, 15% posing, 10% show animal to best advantage, 10% poise, alertness, and attitude).
- ii. No animals may be exhibited that are not properly fitted.

3. Livestock Fitting & Showmanship: Livestock show people are required to wear black or white pants, a white shirt, and safe footwear (no sneakers for large animals). No Hats. See individualized sections for appropriate attire.

4. General Livestock Rules:

- a. All Cages, Stalls, and Exhibit Areas must be cleaned daily by 9:00 a.m. and maintained by the 4-H exhibitor or by another 4-H exhibitor if he/she has approved this with 4-H staff or the Area Superintendent.
- b. Exhibitors over 12 years of age must be in the livestock barn for help in the barn during the fireworks on Friday and Saturday nights.
- c. Exhibitors must supply their own tools, feed, supplies, etc.(sharing is not encouraged)
- d. Any exhibitor who wins a blue ribbon on a rabbit, cavy, poultry, sheep, swine, goat, dairy, or beef entry is eligible for State Fair. If you are interested in participation in State Fair, you must pre-register by July 20 with the 4-H Office. Horses must meet additional specific requirements & pre-register before or at the State Fair Qualifying Horse Show.
- e. Livestock must remain in stall until release time on Sunday. Any animal leaving prior to release without permission via the Early Release Form will risk losing premiums.
- f. Stalls/Pens are assigned by the area superintendent. Please keep area superintendent up to date on all animals that will be exhibited at fair. If registered animals are not coming to fair please let your superintendent know.
- g. Animal project records MUST be turned into the 4-H Secretary Booth on the day the animal arrives at fair in order to be eligible for exhibition/premiums. Record books will be checked for progress, up until fair. Examples include: Feed, vet care, weight, lactation etc. Remember, the purpose of the youth fair is for education. If they are not handed in, members will not receive premiums.
- h. 4H staff/ Superintendents reserve the right to make final decisions on all animal fair issues.
- i. Check in/Weigh In
  - i. All animal exhibits may arrive Wednesday or Thursday, as scheduled, only during the time(s) when a health check can be performed by an Ag and Markets representative on the scheduled days.
  - ii. No animals can be brought into the livestock barn without having a vet health check for required animals.
  - iii. If an animal leaves the fairgrounds, it must be re-checked by the Ag and Markets representative during the designated 4H drop off times only.
- j. Animal entry fees include registration and stall fee
- k. Everyone is expected to help pick-up and clean-up on release day.
- l. The sale of 4-H animals is allowed as long as you follow these guidelines.
  - i. 4-H animals can be advertised for sale at the Youth Fair on an individual basis.
  - ii. A sign may be posted next to the animal's stall or cage with instructions to contact the Fair Superintendent for that area.
  - iii. The owner of the animal must then arrange the sale with area Superintendent.
  - iv. Sold animals are not to be removed prior to the release time on Sunday.

AWARDS

- Small Animal Barnsmanship Award open to any youth exhibiting rabbits or poultry in the small animal barn. Criteria: Quality & Quantity of work, team work, sportsmanship, & consideration of others. Awarded at Achievement Night
