

Program will be a blend of hands-on activities, and interactive classroom instruction.

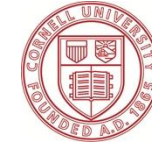

What to bring:

If you are staying in the Townhouses on campus linens and towels are provided and rooms have air conditioning.

We will be working with livestock so please bring clothing that you don't mind getting dirty in. We ask that you clean any coveralls or outerwear that you may have used in or around livestock and poultry as well as bringing footwear that can be cleaned and sanitized for biosecurity purposes.

Accommodations are available for service animals. Please inform us of your needs. There may be some limitations to assure safety of participants, service animals and livestock.
