Make Celebrations Fun, Healthy and Active

♦ Make healthy habits part of your celebrations
Food and beverages are a part of an event, but they do not have to be the center of the occasion. Focus on activities to get people moving and enjoy being together.

♦ Make foods look festive
Decorate foods with nuts or seeds or use new shapes for vegetables. Add a few eye-catching fruits to a favorite dish, serve up a new recipe, or add a sprinkle of almonds or green onions to add just an extra something.

♦ Offer thirst quenches that please
Make fun ice cubes from 100% juice or add slices of fruit to make water more exciting. Create a “float” by adding a scoop of low-fat sorbet to seltzer water.

♦ Use ChooseMyPlate.gov to include foods from the food groups for your party
Offer whole-grain crackers, serve a spicy bean dip and a veggie tray, make fruit kabobs, layer yogurt and fruit to create a sweet parfait. Use whole grains and veggies to make a savory, healthy salad.

♦ Make moving part of every event
Being physically active makes everyone feel good. Dancing, moving, playing active games, wiggling, and giggling add fun to any gathering.

In Season This Month: Summer Squash

Zucchini and yellow squash are abundant and inexpensive in the summer months. Look for summer squash that is firm and free from soft spots or other blemishes. Store summer squash in a plastic bag in the refrigerator for up to 5 days. Do not wash the squash until you are ready to use it. Summer squash is very low in calories, with ½ of a squash having only 20 calories, no fat or cholesterol and it is an excellent source of vitamin C. Shred it and add to salads, spaghetti sauce, muffins or pancakes, or chop it and add to soups, stir-fry or an omelet.
With your child, head to the nearest public library and borrow “Farmers’ Market” by Paul Brett Johnson. It tells the story of one family’s life who grows and sells produce at their local farmers’ market. Read the story with your child, then head to the farmers’ market and talk about how your farmers’ market is similar and different from the market described in the book.

While you are at the market, encourage your child to choose one fruit or vegetable they would like to try and purchase it so that your whole family can try something new.
