

Earth Day 2018...Make a Splash!

Cornell Cooperative Extension of Suffolk County, in Western Suffolk

Ages 8+ (and up!)

{A parent or guardian is welcomed}

This Earth Day why not join us for a very special first-time event! Let's celebrate Mother Earth and learn about how we can help keep our seas free from debris! Learn about marine debris and how it can have a serious impact on both marine wildlife and humans. This educational event will provide your child with the knowledge of how we can make a difference. Children will participate in a beach clean-up at Asharoken Beach, followed by an evaluation of what trash was discovered and hands-on time with live local marine animals that are affected by this pollution.
