The year 2018 marks the 30th year of 4-H International Night in Sullivan County! Clubs, independent members, and project groups planning to host a station must notify Marylin, mlr34@cornell.edu reserve a spot. Open to family, friends, and the public, the event schedule is as follows:

6:00 pm – Clubs set up displays and activities

6:30 pm – Clubs visit each other's displays

7:00 pm – Each club delivers a 10 minute presentation related to their country

Public Presentations Information Night – January 31 – 6:30 pm

4-H Public Presentations is not only one of Sullivan County 4-H's most attended events but also one of the required events to complete in order to receive an Achievement Certificate at the end of the year. On January 31 at 6:30 pm at the CCESC building, the 4-H program is planning an evening of helpful tips and tricks to give great presentations as well as guidance on what evaluators look for in good presentations. Pre-registration is required for this event. Call the office at 845-292-6180 and ask for either Marylin or Kaitlyn. Can't make the event? Contact the 4-H staff to learn more about Public Presentations. Marylin Jones mlr34@cornell.edu or Kaitlyn Smith krs257@cornell.edu.

Trout in the Classroom – Fridays 6 pm

Interested in learning about trout, hatcheries, raising fish, watersheds, conservation, or becoming an environmental steward? 4-H Shooting Sport's Environmental Science program, Trout in the Classroom has these project areas and more all wrapped up in one program! Youth participants will assist in raising trout fry until their release into a local water system in spring 2018. Youth meet every Friday at the CCESC building at 6pm for the program in addition to weekly rotations of caring for the fish. YOUTH DO NOT NEED TO BE A CURRENT PARTICIPANT IN SHOOTING SPORTS TO PARTICIPATE. If interested in finding out more information, contact Kaitlyn at krs257@cornell.edu. Remember to check the 4-H Sullivan County Shooting Sports facebook page for fishy updates and any schedule changes that may occur.

4-H Project Explore Night – February 7

4-H members, parents and leaders are welcome to explore project topics on Wednesday, February 7, 6:30 pm. This is an opportunity for the 4-H community to network and find resources for project interests. Please contact mlr34@cornell.edu to communicate topics of interest, project information to share, and ideas for helping 4-H'ers engage in successful project work.

4-H All About Dogs – February 9, 2018 – 6:30 pm-CCE

4-H and Sullivan County youth are invited to learn through hands-on activities, All About Dogs. This is a great opportunity for "dog crazy kids". Participate in demonstrations and a mock skill-a-thon, plus learn about careers and educational opportunities related to dogs. Call the office or visit the website to register.

Intergenerational Textile Project – February 16

The CCEC 4-H Intergenerational Textile Project welcomes 4-H, CCEC enrollees, and community members to bring textile project work and join them at their meeting tonight at 6:00 pm. Learn about skill building opportunities and a new community service initiative for 2017-2018: collecting small blankets for Project Linus. Fleece fabric and worsted weight yarn have been donated to CCEC 4-H in support of this service-learning project. Those wishing to participate in the project should bring a size “F” crochet hook (and also “K” and “J” hooks if crocheting the entire blanket). The intergenerational textile group meets the third Friday of each month from 6:00-8:00 pm. To learn more about the Textile Project, contact mlr34@cornell.edu.
