Submit one copy only, unless animals being exhibited are owned by multiple people.

In case of an emergency, 4-H Staff/Superintendents will attempt to contact you and the owner first, followed by the veterinarian listed. If they cannot reach you, the owner, or the veterinarian, for the health and safety of your animal, as well as all people and animals on the grounds, 4-H Staff/Superintendents will contact a veterinarian.

1. I, on behalf of myself or my child (or children), acknowledge that Cornell Cooperative Extension of Orleans County, its officers, directors, employees, agents and volunteers and the members of the Orleans County 4-H Fair Committee, have absolutely no responsibility whatsoever for the safety and well-being of the animal or animals, and I/we leave the animals on the fairgrounds entirely at our own risk.

2. I/we release and discharge from and waive any claim or liability against Cornell Cooperative Extension of Orleans County, its officers, directors, employees, agents, and volunteers and the members of the Orleans County 4-H Fair Committee for any injury, including death, or damage to the animal(s) regardless of any cause whatsoever for said injury, damage, or death. This release shall be binding on us and any of our legal representatives or assigns.

3. In the event of any attempt by any other party or parties to assert any type of claim or demand against Cornell Cooperative Extension of Orleans County, its officers, directors, employees, agents and volunteers, and the members of the Orleans County 4-H Fair Committee, I/we shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless each and all of them from said claim or demand.

OWNER/EXHIBITOR WILL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR ALL FEES INCURRED.

By signing this form, and as a condition of leaving the above listed animals at the Orleans County 4-H Fair, we have read and agree to all the terms and conditions herein and those listed on this form.

QUALITY ASSURANCE PLEDGE

Orleans County 4-H Livestock Raisers Commitment to Excellence

Submit one copy per youth with Advance Entry Form

All 4-H members engaged in meat animal production activities are expected to review and do the best job that they can do to understand and adhere to the following practices.

As a 4-H member,

- I am learning the best ways to house, feed, manage, and care for animals.
- I am also learning about vaccination practices and health care procedures I can follow to protect my animals from becoming sick or injured.
- I will inspect facilities for things like cleanliness, animal comfort, and safe methods of animal handling and restraint, and make the appropriate changes to improve the animals comfort and safety.
- I will work with my veterinarian and follow my veterinarian's advice and recommendations.
- I agree that I will strictly adhere to label directions when using any over the counter medications
- I understand that many medications and treatments have withdrawal times. Common medications or treatments include de-worming medicines, vaccinations or shots given to prevent diseases, and antibiotics used to treat diseases.
- I will choose grooming products that I know are safe for humans and animals.
- I will read product labels and avoid products that may be harmful to my animal or me, such as methylene chloride and toluene. (Examples of products to avoid are leather polishes, nail polishes, aerosol paints, water based cleaners, and water based adhesives.)
- I will learn about and follow state and federal animal identification regulations.
- I will learn how to prepare livestock for market by calculating proper withdrawal times for legal medications and treatments.
- I will be honest in reporting my knowledge about treatments before my animals are prepared for shows, sales, market, or slaughter.
- I will do my part to ensure a safe food supply by sending animals that are clean, dry, disease free, and medication free to market.
- I will be kind and considerate in my relationships and will strive to do others no harm.
- I am aware that my actions and decisions affect others.

If I do not follow these practices,

- I could be harming myself.
- I could be harming others.
- I could be harming the food supply.
- I could be asked to withdraw from participation in future 4-H livestock activities.

My signature means I have read and will practice the voluntary Quality Assurance Pledge.
