Steuben County Public Health is in need of volunteer "patients"!

We are hosting an emergency preparedness drill that requires volunteers to register, come through our clinic, and watch a nurse give a shot to an orange (in place of the person). In this drill, Steuben County residents are believed to be exposed to a virus that requires a vaccine to prevent illness.

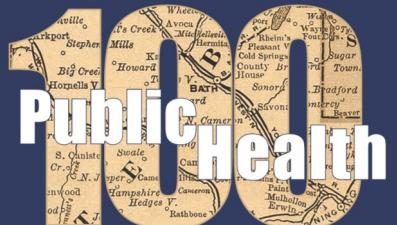

- The clinic drill will run for 2 hours: 1:00 - 3:00 pm
- Our goal is to have over 150 people come through the clinic in that time (the same person can come through multiple times as "different" people)
- We greatly welcome ALL individuals, including senior citizens, pregnant women, children, and people with disabilities
- Volunteers will get to experience what a real emergency event could be like firsthand
- You are vital to making emergency preparedness a success in Steuben County!

In addition to volunteers to come through the clinic, we need volunteers to help staff the event. These volunteers will be used to greet people, guide participants through the clinic, register participants, help with supplies, etc. We also need medical volunteers. If interested in staffing the event, please provide your name, email, and cell phone number to Public Health by:
