Racism is a tough topic and conversations about race and racism are hard to have for adults and youth alike. Join us for this hands-on workshop to talk about how we can have empowered conversations about these tough topics with your children of any age.

There is NO CHARGE for this program as it is generously funded by Washingtonville Teacher Center, Cornell Cooperative Extension Orange County and the YWCA of Orange County.

In this workshop, you will learn about::

- ✓ The History of Racism
 - ✓ How to talk about tough topics like race and racism
 - ✓ Tools and language to use with your children/youth
 - ✓ The critical role of bystanders and helpful "upstanders"
 - ✓ Action steps for you and your family that empower you to be the change you want to see
- "We need every human gift and cannot afford to neglect any gift because of artificial barriers of sex or race or class or national origin."*
