

APPLICATION PROCESS FOR USE OF THE LI WELCOME CENTER COMMUNITY ROOM

The Community Room at the LI Welcome Center can be reserved by local community groups or non-profit organizations on a first-come, first-serve basis. To apply for Community Room use, please fill out the Application for Use of the LI Welcome Center Community Room.

A submitted application does not constitute a guaranteed reservation. After approval, you will be contacted and put on the calendar. The Community Room is generally available for 1 hour increments although extensions are permissible if no other groups are waiting to use the room. You may not exceed occupancy of 40 people. Space may be reserved once per month and up to three months in advance to ensure fair availability to other groups and residents.

No outside food or drinks allowed, please remove any trash or personal belongings when your time is completed.

The Community room houses the DMV Kiosk and must be made available to those wishing to use it and the other service kiosks as necessary.
