

Position Announcement (4/27/18)

Title: Finger Lakes Eat Smart NY Garden Educator

Responsibilities: This educator is responsible for delivery of established Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP-Ed) Community and School Garden PSE (Policy, Systems and Environment) plan with the goal of improving access to and consumption of vegetables and fruits with SNAP and SNAP eligible groups through edible gardens. With guidance from supervisor, this Garden Educator will implement the garden environmental strategies in an 11 county Finger Lakes area, primarily in the Rochester area. This position will assist supervisor and the FLESNY Team to increase the Finger Lakes Eat Smart New York (FLESNY) capacity to support sustainable gardens in low-income communities. This individual will be employed and supervised by Tompkins County CCE but will be located and work out of the Monroe County CCE offices for the convenience of the program.

Qualifications: Associate's degree with 2 years related experience or Bachelor's degree in Nutrition, Health Education, and/or Public Health, Agriculture, Horticulture, Plant Sciences or equivalent. Experience working with community and/or school organizations to implement edible gardens. Ability to plan, organize, implement, and present effective and relevant educational lessons to target audiences in group settings, and work with diverse audiences of all ages.

Pay Range: $17.00 - $19.23 per hour

Hours/Benefits: Position is part-time (20 hours/week) and includes full benefit package including health and dental insurance, retirement, life insurance and more.

Inquiries: Questions in advance of application should be directed to Josh Dolan, School and Community Garden Specialist, 607-272-2292 or email jd285@cornell.edu.
