

Steuben County Fair

4-H Cloverbud Livestock Fairbook

2018 Steuben County 4-H Cloverbuds can exhibit animals (Beef Cattle, Dog, Dairy Goats, Meat Goats, Poultry, Rabbit, Cavy, Swine, Sheep, Dairy Cattle, Horse) at the Steuben County Fair.

Must complete the County Fair Animal Cloverbud Entry Form by Monday, July 9, 2018.

Cloverbuds do not have to own the animal they show; the animal can be borrowed.

Cloverbuds are not allowed to compete for premiums and prizes, however they will receive encouragement and ribbons for their efforts.

Cloverbuds are not allowed to spend the night at the Fairgrounds, unless they are also exhibiting in Open Class and then it is the responsibility of the parent or guardian to supervise the Cloverbud member.

Cloverbuds must be chaperoned at all times while they are on the fairgrounds by someone at least 16 years old or older.

Whenever animals are to be moved and on show day, a parent or guardian must be present and assist the Cloverbud while showing their animal.

Cloverbuds may exhibit 1 ANIMAL ONLY in 4-H Classes! All Cloverbud animals must follow the 2018 Animal Health Requirements for Admission to the NYS and County Fairs that are at https://www.agriculture.ny.gov/AI/Fair_Health_Requirements.pdf and in the 4-H Fairbook. Please read all health rules and regulations.

We have tried to accommodate the Cloverbud families by partnering the Cloverbud shows with Open Shows of that species. Cloverbuds can and should compete in the Steuben County Fair Open Shows.

If competing in Open Shows, Cloverbud must follow open show rules and must complete an open class entry form and pay for entries and exhibitor ticket.

Cloverbuds who exhibit animals at the County Fair must complete a Cloverbud Animal Record and turn it in to the CCE Office no later than 4:30 p.m. on September 17, 2018.
