

BUOYS FOR THE BAYS ART + AWARENESS INITIATIVE
Presented by North Fork Art Collective + Borghese Vineyard
Curated by Kara Hoblin To Benefit Cornell Cooperative Extension Marine Program
ART ENTRY FORM

ARTIST INFORMATION

Name:

Address:

City/State/ZIP:

Phone:

Email:

ENTRY INFORMATION

Title:

Medium:

Brief Artist Bio:

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- Artwork must be created on repurposed buoys which can be picked up from the North Fork Art Collective in Greenport, CCE's Marine Center in Southold, or Borghese Vineyard during their normal business hours beginning on September 12th.
- Each individual art submission is due to one of three buoy pickup locations by October 7th, 2018 to be included in the exhibition and auction.
- Artists may submit up to 3 entries each.
- All proceeds from buoy sales will be donated in support of Cornell Cooperative Extension's Back to the Bays Initiative. In appreciation of your donation you will receive a complimentary Back to the Bays Membership.
- The Buoys for the Bays Art + Awareness Initiative Opening Reception at Borghese Vineyard will be held on October 12th from 6-8pm. All artists are welcomed and encouraged to participate, but need not attend to represent their work.
- Inquiries can be directed to Kara Hoblin: karahoblin@gmail.com Kim Barbour: 631-461-5294 or kp237@cornell.edu.

I have read and agree to the above listed terms and conditions (check box):

Signature:

Date:

Official Use Only

Received:

Processed:

ID #: