COMMUNITY FORUM

Connecting Food, Farms, Soil & Climate: Strengthening Community While Ensuring a Livable Planet

Thursday, November 1, 2018 from 6:00 PM - 8:00 PM

Cornell Cooperative Extension of Ulster County
232 Plaza Road, Kingston, NY 12401

If you produce food, or just eat it, you can help!!
Come hear how you can join this movement.

Learn how local food producers and farms prioritizing healthier soil, along with New York State and community-based soil and farm initiatives, are working together to promote healthy and climate-resilient farms, families and communities, while also creating a livable planet for years to come.

Speakers/Panelists include:
- Jan Elise Storm, Agriculture Liaison, Citizens' Climate Lobby
- Cedric Mason, Research Support Specialist, New York Soil Health
- Brian Steinmuller, Asst. Director, NYS Climate Resilient Farming Program
- Jesse Tolz, Marketing and Logistics Manager, Field Goods
- Susan Hereth, Education Director, Kingston YMCA Farm Project

Walk-ins are welcome, but please RSVP by October 30 to help us plan for materials. Refreshments provided!

Register online at tinyurl.com/RSVP-Food-Farms-Climate or RSVP to Carrie, 845-340-3990 x311, cad266@cornell.edu with your full name, phone and email address.
