

PRESS RELEASE

January 11, 2019

Lead Staff: Erica Lynch
845-292-6180, ext. 118
Catskills Kitchen Program Coordinator
ell68@cornell.edu

Scholarships Available for Youth Pasta Making Class

LIBERTY, NY— Cornell Cooperative Extension Sullivan County (CCESC) offers a Homemade Pasta Making for Kids workshop at a reduced cost on Saturday, January 26, 2019 from 10:00 am to 12:00 pm. Youth ages 10-12 are invited to experience this new, hands-on class in the Catskills Kitchen located at the Extension Education Center on 64 Ferndale-Loomis Road in Liberty.

Youth will learn how to make pasta and basic marinara sauce from scratch. Everyone will learn how to make dough, use a pasta making machine, prepare sauce, and cook the pasta in a state-of-the-art facility. Participants will sample pasta and take home dough.

Cost is $5 per youth and FULL SCHOLARSHIPS are readily available. Space is limited to 8 participants for this class.

Registration and scholarship application can be completed by visiting www.sullivancce.org, emailing sullivan@cornell.edu, or calling CCESC at 845-292-6180.

In the event of special needs, the public should contact the CCESC office.

###

Your Trusted Resource of Choice.