Other

A prorated refund will be made for the remaining camp days if a camper becomes ill or injured at camp and the Camp Health Director or Camp Director determines that he/she is unable to participate in camp activities and must be sent home.

No refunds

If a camper is sent home for behavioral reasons including but not limited to: violating camp rules and policies (see Parent Handbook), homesickness, non-compliance, failure to thrive (e.g., not eating, sleeping or participating), there will be no refund. A camper who does not arrive, arrives late, leaves early, or attends only part of the session will not receive a refund.

Important note about homesickness

Camp staff make every effort to help campers who struggle with separation from home. If, after one or more nights at camp, a camper is still homesick and unwilling to adjust to camp life, the parent will be asked to take the child home from camp, in which case, there will be no refund or credit.
