

REQUEST FOR INTEREST CCE Sullivan Mobile Farmers' Market Vendors

INTRODUCTION

Cornell Cooperative Extension Sullivan County (CCESC), invites letters of interest to provide fresh produce for the CCE Sullivan Mobile Farmers' Market Project for the 2020 season to improve access to locally grown, fresh food by Sullivan County senior citizens and low to moderate income residents. The mobile market will operate on Wednesdays and Thursdays, July – September, with the possibility of additional stops in October.

Applicants should submit one (1) copy of the letter with original signature. The letter must include the following:

- Product Availability
- Price of each product and how they are packaged (can include a wholesale pricing sheet)
- Preferred Payment method and frequency of payments.
- Delivery and/or pick up method

Envelopes should be clearly marked: "RFI – Mobile Farmers' Market".

Letters can be submitted to:
Cornell Cooperative Extension Sullivan County
64 Ferndale-Loomis Rd.
Liberty, NY 12754
E-mail: sullivanfresh@cornell.edu

Letters must be received by 4:00 p.m. EDT by March 31, 2020 for an early July 2020 start.

QUESTIONS CONCERNING THE RFI

All questions about this RFI may be submitted to:
Cornell Cooperative Extension Sullivan County
64 Ferndale-Loomis Rd., Liberty, NY 12754
Phone: (845) 292-6180
E-mail: sullivanfresh@cornell.edu

Your Trusted Resource of Choice.