

SeedMoney Garden Grants 2020

This year, SeedMoney is offering 315 grants totaling over $55,000 to food garden projects through a 30-day crowdfunding challenge running from Nov 15 to Dec 15.

Our grants are open to any type of public food garden project (youth gardens, community gardens, food bank gardens, shelter gardens, etc.) regardless of its location.

To apply, go to:

Strong Start Grants (SSG)

40 grants of $100 to the 40 projects that have raised the most after the 1st week of the 30-day challenge period. SSG grants can be combined with Challenge Grants (CG).

Geographic Interest Grants (GIG)

70 grants of $100-$200 for projects based in Maine or developing countries. No crowdfunding challenge required.

The 205 Challenge Grants (CG) shown in the pyramid above will be awarded to projects based on where they are ranked at the end of the 30-day challenge period (1st ranked project wins a $600 grant, 2nd-10th win $500 grants, etc.)
