

CULTIVATING COMMUNITY 2022

POSITION DESCRIPTION: TEEN LEADER

Cornell Cooperative Extension
Monroe County

City of Rochester, NY
Malik D. Evans, Mayor
Rochester City Council

Cultivating Community is a paid summer experience for City of Rochester residents ages 13-18. The program includes horticulture and urban agriculture work, civic engagement, and life skill development.

The program is sponsored by Cornell Cooperative Extension of Monroe County's 4-H Youth Development Program, and the City of Rochester Department of Recreation and Human Services.

Position Title:	Teen Leader
Supervisor:	Evan Lowenstein, Cornell Cooperative Extension/Monroe County (Program Leader)
Location:	Work sites throughout the City of Rochester's four quadrants
Duties:	Assist the adult Program Leader with all aspects of planning and running the program, to include scheduling, logistics, communication with/support of the 14 Community Cultivator Crew members, hands-on horticulture project leading and work, facilitation of/participation in life skills and personal development programming.
Required Skills:	Experience managing and supporting fellow teens in community or school programs and projects; willingness to work diligently on community horticulture projects, and on own self development.
Qualifications:	Be 17 or 18 years old and reside in the City of Rochester; experience leading and managing fellow teens on community and school programs and projects.
Days and Hours:	8 weeks from Tuesday, July 5 through Thursday, August 25; 30 hours per week; Monday - Thursday from 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.
Compensation:	$17.00 per hour stipend, paid weekly
Questions?	Contact Evan Lowenstein at 585-753-2576 or 585-820-4068; or at eml238@cornell.edu . More information at www.monroe.cc.edu/cultivatingcommunity .