ONTARIO COUNTY 4-H LIVESTOCK AUCTION

Auction Terms and Conditions

- Payment for all purchases must be made on the night of the auction. Cash or check only!
- We will honor arrangements made prior to the sale for payment after the auction. Please speak with a 4-H Livestock Auction Committee member and still check out after the auction. All purchases must be settled within 10 days!
- All payments will be made to: CCE Ontario
- All 4-H members receive proceeds from the sale of their animal. A nominal commission is collected from members to help defray auction and program expenses.
- All animals are sold live, by the pound with the exception for rabbits (live) and poultry which are already processed. Buyers may choose to send purchased animals to a packing plant, resell them via donating them back, resell them thru Canandaigua Stockyards or take them home.
- If you buy an animal and wish to donate it back to the 4-H Livestock Auction Program, please notify the auction staff as soon as it is purchased. Those animals will be resold and all proceeds from the resale will go to the Ontario County 4-H Livestock Auction Program.

Processing Guidelines

Packers & Processors that are working with our auction:

Special Thank You To:

Thank you to all of our bidders and buyers at the 2022 4-H Livestock Auction at the Ontario County Fair. A very special thank you to Finger Lakes Livestock Exchange for providing our auctioneer and ringmen and to Tessah Ciardi Photography for photographing our auction. Thank you to Hartland Abattoir, Serendipity Acres, Joe's Meat Market and HLW Acres Poultry Processing for your processing and harvesting services. And thank you to CO Rd 7 All Grilled Up for catering our buyers dinner. We hope that we did not miss anyone: if we did please know that your support to the 4-H program and livestock auction is greatly appreciated! We thank all of our volunteers who make this auction possible!
