

USDA

NIFA

(National Institute of Food and Agriculture)

Land-Grant Universities

103 Land Grant Universities, at least one in each state, set up under the Morrill Acts of 1862, 1890, and/or 1994

Cornell University (1865)

Cornell is New York's Land-Grant University

Michael I. Kotlikoff, Interim President of Cornell University

CALS Extension
Faculty

College of Agriculture and Life Sciences
Benjamin Z. Houlton
Dean of CALS

College of Human Ecology
Rachel Dunifon
Dean of CHE

Cornell University Agricultural Experiment Station
(Ithaca, NY)
Margaret Smith
Director

Cornell AgriTech
(Geneva, NY)
Christine Smart
Director

Cornell Cooperative Extension Administration

Andy Turner, CCE Director

Provides leadership for statewide Extension; administers Smith Lever federal formula funds for Extension programs

Bronfenbrenner Center for Translational Research
Anthony Burrow
Director

Board of Directors
Local direction, program assessment and fiduciary responsibility

Statewide and Regional Programs

Programmatic
linkages to Cornell
faculty

County Extension Associations

Provide educational programs based on Cornell research and resources

Professional staff

30,000 Volunteers

County Legislatures provide local appropriation

State Legislature
Authorizes associations
as subordinate governmental agencies
under oversight of
Cornell University;
provides appropriation
if matched by County Legislatures