MILK MARKET

What you need to know

We're pleased to welcome Dr. Wolf for a Zoom conversation focused on the current milk market and what it means for your farm. He'll walk through what's driving the trends we're seeing, share his outlook for the year ahead, and offer some thoughts on how farms—especially small to mid-sized operations—can position themselves in this market. We'll leave plenty of time for Q&A, so come with your questions and join the discussion.
