

WASHINGTON COUNTY 4-H LEADERS SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Cornell Cooperative Extension, Washington County
101 Lower Main Street
Argyle, NY 12809
518-290-2302

This one-time scholarship is available to high school seniors or postgraduates who have been actively enrolled in the Washington County 4-H program. This application is due to the 4-H office by the end of the business day on May 27th. Scholarship winners will receive their checks once our office has received proof of tuition or enlistment.

Name (in full): _____ Date of Birth: _____

Home Address: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

List the years of 4-H membership:

List in chronological order: all schools, including post high school, that you've attended, name of school, dates of attendance, graduation date if applicable.

What college(s), vocational, technical, military or trade school have you applied to & what is your major if applicable? How do you envision your career path unfolding? What are your specific career goals you are hoping to achieve?

Section I - 4-H Projects

List those 4-H projects & activities that have been most meaningful to you and why:

Using one or more of these projects, write a paragraph stating how your project work has helped you learn some important life lessons. Be sure to include what those life lessons are.

Section II - 4-H Leadership and Citizenship

List the most meaningful experiences as a 4-Her of leadership and citizenship you have participated in and why:

Leadership	Citizenship

Section III – Community Involvement outside of 4-H

List any organizations outside of 4-H that you have participated in:

Section IV – Extracurricular High School Activities

List any school activities outside of 4-H:

Section V – Honors & Awards

List any awards or honors that you have received during your high school career or beyond:

Section VI - Interests & Hobbies

List any interests or hobbies outside of 4-H:

Section VI – 4-H Grows Young Adults

In a paragraph, explain how your involvement in 4-H has helped you find your spark, helped you grow & developed into a kind, competent, and responsible member of your community.