Cover Crop & Soil Health Field Day

Tuesday, June 30, 2026, 10:00 AM - 1:00 PM at Nichols Farm 220 State Route 243 in Farmersville Station, NY 14060. Soil Health Trailer demonstrations along with discussion on the benefits and uses of cover crops, and farmer-led discussion and Q&A followed by lunch. Free to attend, pre-registration appreciated for planning purposes call Kim at 716-699-2377 (ext. 106) to RSVP.

Weed challenges on your farm?

A group of researchers through a Cornell University program are interviewing farmers about their weed management programs and the weed management challenges they're facing today. Especially interested in talking to growers who engage in some practice under the regenerative agriculture umbrella - cover cropping, agroforestry, etc. Interviews tend to take about 15 minutes, but they are happy to talk about weed problems for as long as you like! If interested, please contact Katrina Davis at skd72@cornell.edu."
