The Believer's Position: “Dead to Sin”

Romans 6:1-11

10.11.2026

A stylized graphic of a leaf and branch in a light tan color, set against a dark purple background. The leaf is elongated and pointed, with visible veins. The branch is thin and curves around the leaf. The entire graphic is centered behind a white text box.

Can a believer sin?

Should a believer sin?

Why do believers sin?

1. Your position is your source!
