Class 1 — Psalms 1-15

For the next six classes, select the title that best describes each Psalm, placing the letter of the title beside the Psalm number. Use each title only once. Though some of the Psalms have multiple themes and some titles might arguably apply to more than one Psalm, use each title only once. The titles are from a list provided in Walk Thru the Bible, pages 157-160.

Introduction to Proverbs

The chief feature of Hebrew poetry is parallelism, the rhyming of ideas rather than sounds as in English poetry. Five kinds of Hebrew poetic parallelism are described below. For a fuller description, see Talk Thru the Bible, pages 140-141.

1. Synonymous Parallelism—the second line reinforces the thought of the first line by using similar words or concepts.

Pride goes before destruction,
And a haughty spirit before stumbling
Proverbs 16:18

2. Synthetic Parallelism—the second line adds to or completes the idea of the first line.

A wicked man receives a bribe from the bosom
To pervert the ways of justice.
Proverbs 17:23

3. Antithetic Parallelism—the thought of the first line is contrasted in the second line.

A wise son makes a father glad,
But a foolish son is a grief to his mother.
Proverbs 10:1

4. Statement and Comment—the first line makes a statement while the second line provides an explanation.

The terror of a king is like the growling of a lion;
He who provokes him to anger forfeits his own life.
Proverbs 20:2

5. Emblematic Parallelism—the first line uses a figure of speech to illuminate the main point conveyed by the second line.

As a ring of gold in a swine's snout,
So is a beautiful woman who lacks discretion.
Proverbs 11:22

Class 7 – Proverbs 1-15

Write an interpretation of each of the following difficult proverbs, as translated in the New American Standard Bible. List at least one application of the verse. If you are able, identify what type of poetic parallelism is being used.

Proverb	Type	Interpretation & Application
9:12 If you are wise, you are wise for yourself, And if you scoff, you alone will bear it.
10:29 The way of the LORD is a stronghold to the upright, But ruin to the workers of iniquity.
11:7 When a wicked man dies, his expectation will perish, And the hope of strong men perishes.
11:31 If the righteous will be rewarded in the earth, How much more the wicked and the sinner!
12:3 A man will not be established by wickedness, But the root of the righteous will not be moved.
12:27 A slothful man does not roast his prey, But the precious possession of a man is diligence.
13:8 The ransom of a man's life is his riches, But the poor hears no rebuke.
14:4 Where no oxen are, the manger is clean, But much increase comes by the strength of the ox.
15:11 Sheol and Abaddon lie open before the LORD, How much more the hearts of men!

Bible Survey III
Class 8 – Proverbs 16-31

Write an interpretation of each of the following difficult proverbs, as translated in the New American Standard Bible. List at least one application of the verse. If you are able, identify what type of poetic parallelism is being used.

Proverb	Type	Interpretation & Application
16:4 The LORD has made everything for its own purpose, Even the wicked for the day of evil.
17:8 A bribe is a charm in the sight of its owner; Wherever he turns, he prospers.
17:16 Why is there a price in the hand of a fool to buy wisdom, When he has no sense?
18:1 He who separates himself seeks his own desire, He quarrels against all sound wisdom.
20:12 The hearing ear and the seeing eye, The LORD has made both of them.
22:13 The sluggard says, "There is a lion outside; I shall be slain in the streets!"
25:8-10 Do not go out hastily to argue your case; Otherwise, what will you do in the end, When your neighbor puts you to shame? Argue your case with your neighbor, And do not reveal the secret of another, Lest he who hears it reproach you, And the evil report about you not pass away.
25:19 Like a bad tooth and an unsteady foot Is confidence in a faithless man in time of trouble.
25:21-22 If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat; And if he is thirsty, give him water to drink; For you will heap burning coals on his head, And the LORD will reward you.

Class 13 — Isaiah 58-66

Break the following chapter into sections by topic. Then give a title to each section, placing it in the right-hand margin.

Isaiah 59

- 1 Behold, the LORD'S hand is not so short That it cannot save; Neither is His ear so dull That it cannot hear.
- 2 But your iniquities have made a separation between you and your God, And your sins have hidden His face from you, so that He does not hear.
- 3 For your hands are defiled with blood, And your fingers with iniquity; Your lips have spoken falsehood, Your tongue mutters wickedness.
- 4 No one sues righteously and no one pleads honestly. They trust in confusion, and speak lies; They conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.
- 5 They hatch adders' eggs and weave the spider's web; He who eats of their eggs dies, And [from] that which is crushed a snake breaks forth.
- 6 Their webs will not become clothing, Nor will they cover themselves with their works; Their works are works of iniquity, And an act of violence is in their hands.
- 7 Their feet run to evil, And they hasten to shed innocent blood; Their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; Devastation and destruction are in their highways.
- 8 They do not know the way of peace, And there is no justice in their tracks; They have made their paths crooked; Whoever treads on them does not know peace.
- 9 Therefore, justice is far from us, And righteousness does not overtake us; We hope for light, but behold, darkness; For brightness, but we walk in gloom.
- 10 We grope along the wall like blind men, We grope like those who have no eyes; We stumble at midday as in the twilight, Among those who are vigorous we are like dead men.
- 11 All of us growl like bears, And moan sadly like doves; We hope for justice, but there is none, For salvation, but it is far from us.
- 12 For our transgressions are multiplied before Thee, And our sins testify against us; For our transgressions are with us, And we know our iniquities:
- 13 Transgressing and denying the LORD, And turning away from our God, Speaking oppression and revolt, Conceiving in and uttering from the heart lying words.
- 14 And justice is turned back, And righteousness stands far away; For truth has stumbled in the street, And uprightness cannot enter.
- 15 Yes, truth is lacking; And he who turns aside from evil makes himself a prey. Now the LORD saw, And it was displeasing in His sight that there was no justice.
- 16 And He saw that there was no man, And was astonished that there was no one to intercede; Then His own arm brought salvation to Him; And His righteousness upheld Him.
- 17 And He put on righteousness like a breastplate, And a helmet of salvation on His head; And He put on garments of vengeance for clothing, And wrapped Himself with zeal as a mantle.
- 18 According to their deeds, so He will repay, Wrath to His adversaries, recompense to His enemies; To the coastlands He will make recompense.
- 19 So they will fear the name of the LORD from the west And His glory from the rising of the sun, For He will come like a rushing stream, Which the wind of the LORD drives.
- 20 "And a Redeemer will come to Zion, And to those who turn from transgression in Jacob," declares the LORD.
- 21 "And as for Me, this is My covenant with them," says the LORD: " My Spirit which is upon you, and My words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart from your mouth, nor from the mouth of your offspring, nor from the mouth of your offspring's offspring, "says the LORD," from now and forever. "
