A Harmony of the Gospels

The Standard Broadus Harmony thoroughly Revised, Rearranged and Enlarged.

By

A. T. Robertson

D.D., LL.D., LL.M.
Late Professor of Interpretation of New Testament Greek,
The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary,
Louisville, Kentucky

For more than a generation John A. Broadus' Great work has been the standard Harmony of the Gospels. It has gone through many editions. Professor Robertson, famous the world over as a New Testament scholar, has rewritten and rearranged Broadus' book, using for his text the Revised Version, and bringing to bear on it all the light of the latest findings in the field of New Testament research. College and Seminary Students, Sunday School Teachers and Pupils, Preachers and all Bible students will find this new Harmony unequalled for study purposes.

Christology

Study of the person and work of Jesus Christ

Interpersonal

- touched by Mary's devotion
- desiring Peter, James & John's support

Self-surrender — not my will

Personal — distressed, sorrowful, deeply hurt

Died, buried, resurrected, ascended

Jesus' shed blood* is the basis of the new covenant

Fulfilled Prophecy

- ❖ Zech. 13:7 the stricken shepherd (14:27)
- ❖ Dan. 7:13 coming with the clouds of heaven (14:62)
- ❖ Psa. 22:18 casting lots for Jesus' clothes (15:24)
- ❖ Psa. 22:1 My God My God (15:34)
- ❖ Psa. 69:21 they gave me vinegar to drink (15:36)
- ❖ Isa. 53:9 buried with the rich (15:46)

“The fact is, the birth, crucifixion, and bodily resurrection of Jesus Christ are celebrated worldwide by folk of every race, language, and color, every year. And believing in Jesus, they have been delivered from the most evil, disastrous, frustrating, debilitating habits and life forms possible. The real problem with Jesus Christ is not that folk can't believe in Him—but that they won't believe in Him.”

—United States Senate Chaplain Richard Halverson
